Introduction and Table of Contents

Welcome to the Irrigation and Nitrogen Management User Education/Certification Program.

The training is divided into sections as shown below. There is a quiz at the end of each module to verify that you have watched and read the material. There may also be a quiz specific to each NRD under each NRD group. Click on the text file to open and read the content, then on the video link to watch, then complete the quiz. The first step is to complete the registration form.

Please start at the first section required by your NRD, complete the activities, video, and quiz and proceed to the next section required by your NRD. There is a required quiz at the end of each section that needs to be passed.
